

Financial Readiness Presentation Instructor Guide

Welcome to Personal Finance for Military Life.

Thank you for ordering this presentation and more importantly, thank you for making a difference in the lives of service members.

Learning to manage money is a critical life skill, one that impacts relationships, well-being and careers in the service and beyond.

It's the simple reason this presentation was created – to improve financial readiness.

Facilitating the presentation is easy. Just follow these three steps:

1. Prepare by:
 - i. Watching the “Financial Readiness Presentation Instructor Guide” video for information about the presentation and helpful facilitator hints.
 - ii. Watching each of the 6 content videos.
 - iii. Familiarizing yourself with the key learnings, discussion points and exercises for each topic.
2. When ready, open the PDF presentation and set to full-screen mode (CONTROL+L).
3. On the first content slide in each section, play the respective video for that section as indicated, then jump back to the presentation.

For more information on improving your personal finances, visit our nonprofit website at www.personalfinanceformilitarylife.org.

Thank you for making a difference!